

MURRAY ATKINSON

Murray Atkinson is currently the lead guitarist for The Odds and keyboard player for Steven Page (Barenaked Ladies).

An accomplished multi-instrumentalist comfortable performing as an instrumentalist or guitarist / vocalist, his live show is a varied mix of straight ahead high energy rockers to stripped down, ethereal, super melodic, orchestral-backed instrumentals. You will hear remnants of everything from The Beatles to Soundgarden, Jeff Beck to Jeff Buckley, Foo Fighters to Nick Johnston in his live set. It is a musical smorgasbord for those willing to experience a musical adventure of wonderful discovery and exceptional musicianship.
